

Our Mission

The International Leadership Association (ILA) is the global network for all those who practice, study and teach leadership. The ILA promotes a deeper understanding of leadership knowledge and practices for the greater good of individuals and communities worldwide.

Our Values

- › INCLUSION: Nurtures and promotes broad and diverse membership engagement
- › INTENT: Encourages leadership initiatives that advance the field of leadership and contribute to the greater global good
- › INTERCONNECTION: Builds upon the shared interests and complementary talents of members to support individual and collective goals
- › INTERNATIONAL PERSPECTIVES: Respects cultural contexts and facilitates learning and networking across national boundaries
- › INTEGRITY: Insists upon effective and ethical leadership practices and sound scholarship

ILA Strives to

- › Strengthen ties between those who study and those who practice leadership
- › Serve as a forum where people can share ideas, research and practices about leadership
- › Foster effective and ethical leadership in individuals, groups, organizations, and governments in the global community
- › Generate and disseminate interdisciplinary research and develop new knowledge and practices

Annual Global Conferences

- › Network with your peers at the only international conference focused specifically on leadership scholarship, education, and practice.
- › Experience compelling keynotes, visit the Leadership Book Fair, and expand your horizons through a hundred concurrent sessions.
- › Explore your areas of interest with the Member Interest Groups (Applied Leadership, Business Leadership, Leadership Education, Public Leadership, and Leadership Scholarship), and join Learning Communities or volunteer teams that meet before the conference opening.

Future Conferences:

Vancouver, BC, Canada: October 31 - November 3, 2007

Los Angeles, CA, USA: November 13-16, 2008
